consideration of any applicable factors permitted by law including, but not limited to, factors related to a student's educational needs, other supports provided to the student by the District related to the student's education, and the efficient and effective operation of the classroom and the school.

These procedures are applicable for the duration of TSS/BSC services within the Ephrata Area School District. Failure to adhere to any of these procedures by the TSS/BSC will be considered cause for termination of the provision of wraparound services in the District.

Because the TSS/BSC assumes a position of professional responsibility upon entering the classroom, confidentiality of information is required. As a result, TSS/BSC is responsible for protecting the confidentiality of information concerning their clients, other students, the teacher, and the entire learning environment. As such, it is the expectation of the District that that TSS/BSC will not provide information about the client, other students in the class, the teacher, and/or the learning environment to anyone other than the appropriate District or agency personnel.
